The disciples of the Sri Vyasarayaswamy Mutt in Bangalore

Petition No. 286 Dated 14th July 1906.

Some 40 disciples of the Sri Vyasa-rayaswamy Mutt in Bangalore give an account of the ~~story~~ circumstances which led to the grant of extensive Inam lands to the Mutt.
They state that the Kundapur Vyasa-rayaswamy Mutt is more a branch of the Sri Uttaradi Mutt than that of the Sosale Vyasarayaswamy Mutt and that the Kundapur and Adbur mutts are one and the same. They have filed with their petition certain documents ~~out~~ in support of their representation. They pray that this matter should be enquired into and finally decided by Govt. so that the Kundapur Vyasaraya mutt Swamy may not lay claims to the R. properties which rightly belong to the Sosale mutt.

Submitted } What they request is that in the Govt Accounts Kundapur mutt should be entered as "Kundapur mutt" or "Adamar mutt" and not as "Kundapur Vyasaraya mutt" lest the latter name may be compounded for "Vyasaraya mutt at Sosale".

There seems to be no for ~~revising~~ this being raised now by the petitioners.

No question has been raised by the Mutts concerned The enclosures may be returned with the remark that Govt consider it unnecessary to go into this question which has not been raised by the Mutts
